The Condition of Mexico—Santa Anna's Opinion of the United States.

The Ex-Dictator is now residing at Turbaco, a small village about four leagues from Cartagena, in New Granada. A correspondent of the New York Herald has lately visited him there, and in a free conversation, received from him a full history of the events of his life as connected with his various triumphs and reverses in Mexico. He considers the principal cause of the difficulties in that distracted country to be the desire among many of her politicians of an impossible imitation of the government of the United States. He says that while the American colonies tended towards a common centre and created strength (for union is strength) the several independences of Mexico diverged from the common centre, and this brought division and weakness.

He has a most intense jealousy and hatred of the United states, under the apprehension that we are destined to absorb the whole of the Mexican Republic.

The writer says:

He stated that when Mexico was compromised to have peace at any price, and refused to contribute to sustain the war, he determined to leave it, for he would sign no peace, nor would he remain to witness the degradation of Mexico. He was animated with the same spirit as the Carthaginians of old, who swore their children upon the altars of their gods to an eternal enmity to Rome. The United States is the Rome of ancient and the Russia of modern days. They are the enemies of our country, religion, and our race, and will swallow up and eat out our citizens, as they have in California and New Mexico. These provinces were obtained by a so-called peaceful cession; but it was a peaceful cession with the rifle at our bosoms, like the stalwart man by the road side, who, pointing a blunderbuss at the unwary and unarmed traveller, asks alms for the love of God.

"I not only hate," he abhor them as a nation," said he, "and all my life has borne testimony to this sentiment. I do not speak of individual Americans, for I do not know that I have a single personal enemy who is an American; on the contrary, I entertain a high regard for many Americans whom I know, and when I was in the United States I received many—very many—personal attentions. I was well received everywhere; General Jackson gave me a banquet at the White House; many citizens of note invited me to their homes and their hearths; public bodies everywhere rendered me honors, and a government ship conveyed me from Norfolk to Mexico. But the spirit that animates, and the policy that guides, the American people are antagonistic to my own country, and I can never yield to its enemy any other feeling than that which springs from a love for my native land. This I evinced on my return to Mexico. After the peace, I found American money circulating everywhere. Some two and a half millions of dollars, which had been left by the army, were scattering among our people, corrupting our youth, and familiarizing them to the sight of the American eagle. My first decree was to banish it from the country, and I drove it out. I will have none of them, nor their principles, nor even their money."

He went on at some length, commenting upon the results of the peace. "What has it brought?" said he. "Another attempt at confederation, which has resulted in greater disunion and confusion. Congresses and Congresses again—all wish to command, and none to obey. All seek to be petty Sovereigns, instead of one great nation, and the resources of the country are scattered in providing pay and mileage for countless deputies. These Congresses have cost Mexico more treasure than would suffice to lade all the ox carts in the republic."

The conversation soon took a general turn, during which he remarked that he had now done with public affairs and closed his career as a public man.

During the interview he stated that he had been often asked why he did not go to the United States to reside. "But," said he, "not only will I not reside among them, but not even where they are; and if they come here, I will go farther on."

For my part, I fear the "universal Yankee" will be a hard man to fly from in the present age. He is here already for a number of your New York capitalists have already begun the work of re-opening the canal of Carthagena, close upon his heels, and are running their steamers on the Magdalena river, in advance of him, under the most favorable auspices and with abundant returns for their enterprise. The business is too great and too remunerative to fail.

Prize Fighting to be Suppressed.

Mr. Erastus Brooks, a member of the New York Legislature, has introduced into the Senate of that State a bill designed to suppress the bloody, inhuman and brutal practice of prize fighting, and the disgraceful scenes with which the Sheet Boys and shoulder hitters of New York city have seen fit to amuse themselves in the interims of their murderous assaults upon respectable citizens. We believe that legislation of this sort, as well as that against gambling, does not meet with any strenuous opposition from respectable people—and that few deny its propriety or justice. And yet the shoulder hitters have their advocates, defenders and newspaper organs,—who argue against this kind of legislation, and denounce its authors in a manner which is surprisingly similar to the appeals which we have heard so vehemently made against prohibitory liquor laws. The organs of the shoulder hitters must, indeed, have learned their lessons from the opponents of the Maine Law,—for they use precisely the same arguments against interfering with prize fighting, that are used against interfering with liquor-selling. It is, they say "infringing the personal liberties of the citizen," to prevent him from taking his pleasure in mauling a fellow-being within an inch of his life, or in actually pounding the life out of him by way of scientific sport.

The New York Clipper is an organ of the sporting gentry, and in a recent article upon the subject of the proposed laws, threatens Mr. Brooks with the political vengeance of the whole mob of prize fighters and their allies, if the bills are passed. Mr. B. it is supposed will be the K. N. candidate for the Rubernatorial chair at the next election; and the Clipper says its friends can and will defeat him, if he does not take the back track, and allow them to retain their "liberties"—and those liberties, we suppose, will include not only prize fighting, bull baiting, dog-fights, cock-fights, and other similar pleasant and innocent amusements, but also the more serious business of some of these gentry, such as felonious assaults, burglary, rape and murder.

The "Clipper" has also a correspondent who pours forth his wrath upon Mr. Brooks, and argues in favor of the right of prize fighting in the following strain:

It appears to me, Mr. Editor, that the bills now before the Legislature to suppress sport, demand an expression of opinion from those calculated to judge of the direful effects should such bills become law.

The arguments in favor of such laws must be shallow indeed, yet when we see them supported by such men as Erastus Brooks, et id omne genus, well may we pause and exclaim, Cæsarem! These gentlemen will certainly detract from their popularity should they continue to advocate the passage of bills obnoxious in more ways than one to the farmer as well as the citizen. There may be some few, for personal reasons in favor of the bills in their present form, but they are like the prohibitory liquor law, and all other fanatical notions, and I beg those whose political ambition aspires to the gubernatorial chair to abstain from the support of all bills asserting, as these do, the just right of a nation of every back-living liberty and the pursuing of pleasure. In many matters relating to State, as well as to Church, there seems to be room for improvement, and I beg our Senators to attend to the former, while the bishops take charge of the latter.

Let me tell you, gentlemen, what has made New York what it is. It is the mind-your-own-business principle.

It will be seen that this gentleman presents the rights of the citizens in this behalf quite as strongly as they are presented in behalf of liquor selling. He has a touch also at the clergy for meddling with these questions, which is really as apropos as the denunciations that our ministers were favored with in the last campaign. And he winds up the whole, admirably, with the same adage which we heard so often from the anti-moral-politics men of our State—"Mind your own business!" Who shall say that prize-fighting is not among the constitutional liberties of the people?

The train last evening brought the accumulated mails of five days, (some twenty bags full.) This is the longest detention of the mails for twenty years; and, bad as the condition of the roads has been, it indicates a lack of force or efficiency in the railroad management west of Portland. All other roads in Maine were in running order, we believe, within two days, at farthest, after the storm—some of them (as the roads running to this city,) suffered a detention of only an hour or two by the snow.

A HANDSOME PIECE OF SCULPTURE.—Thomas Seavey & Son, Carvers, on Exchange St., have an exquisite statue of Hebe, of their own workmanship, as a sign over the entrance to their rooms. It is carved from a solid block of wood, and painted white. The justness and beauty of its proportions, and the delicacy and gracefulness of its outlines, indicate a degree of artistic talent in the sculptor, which reflects high credit upon himself, and is an honor to the city.

HARD TO JUDGE.—The New York Times tells a story of an Irishman, who came up to the Judge, and begged to be excused from jury duty.

"But," said the Judge, "if all are excused that ask, we shall have no jurors left."

"I know, your honor," said the applicant, with downcast head, while his finger nails were busy here, there, and everywhere, that the well practised digitals could reach, "I know—but mine is a peculiar case. I hate to say it, Judge, but I must, I must, I suppose—I've got the itch."

"Here, Mr. Marshall," hastily interposed the Judge, "scratch this juror out."

L. D. Bartlett, Esq., of this city, has been appointed by the United States Court of Claims at Washington, Commissioner to take testimony, &c., to be used before that Court.

AN AUTHOR WANTED.—A late foreign paper says that the anonymous writer of the German tragedy, "The Gladiator of Ravenna," has not been ascertained up to this moment—a circumstance doubly ominous, as the drama not only maintains its high popularity, and as the poet's shares in the profits of its various performances amount, it is said, to no larger a sum as 10,000 thalers (£1,500). The sum deposited in the cash boxes of the different court theatres awaits the "legitimate owner's disposal;" but neither laurels nor gold, it appears, can induce the dramatist to step forth from his place. At all events, he must be a rather timid Thespis, as he keeps greatly aloof.—Boston Transcript.

The Peace Negotiations.

The following extract from the Paris correspondence of the Kolnische Zeitung is translated for the Journal of Commerce. It is commenced under date of Jan. 29:

"I wrote you some time since, that the views of England and France, respecting the continuation of the war, were widely different. It is now proved that such is the case. While in Paris, any sacrifice would be readily made to bring about a peace, the English people and the English government are in the highest degree dissatisfied that the Czar has accepted the propositions—and that not without reason—since the war with Russia, so far as the interests of Europe are concerned, is by no means attended. It is certain that the Paris Cabinet is determined to conclude peace, and that the French people was far from unfavorable disposition to any objections England may make in the matter;—so much the less as they have no further alliance in view. When the Emperor Napoleon received the news of the Czar's assent to the terms proposed, strong and impossible as I usually am, he was deeply moved, and gave way to the most unbounded joy. The impressions made by the peace rumors upon the French people was far from uniform. The Exchange jobbers, and merchants are delighted, the working classes indifferent, the several generals full of hope, and the army, the officers in particular, discontented. The news of the Italian acceptance of the Ultimatum caused the greatest activity in the cotton market at Havre. Within twenty-four hours, 12,760 bales were sold, and the price rose about four francs, while that of grain fell about two francs."

The Alliance and Border Ruffianism.

The democratic side of the allied camp is in a flutter. Its members see that they must give border-ruffianism a practical endorsement, and they feel a great anxiety to know whether their allies are going with them, or mean to draw off. Now this is not our own trouble, and we can have no decisive hand in settling it. But as journalists, we must keep our readers informed of the political events of the day, the more especially that many of them are personally interested therein.

We reiterate what we said a few days ago, that the attitude of this State must soon either endorse border-ruffianism or bolt the allied ranks. Our Argus here effervesces considerably over this assertion. To our question—"What do the Whig masses say to this?"—the Argus volunteers the opinion in its own classic diction, that "the Whig masses will say WHEW!" The well-considered and solemn terms of this opinion commend it to our favorable regard. But we have not yet learned that the whigs have made the Argus their organ in the matter—nor, deploring as much as we the conduct of our whig brethren, can we believe that they have adopted the windy response here put into their mouths. It is too characteristic to be palmed off on others.

But to the point in issue. "Show us," says the Argus, "a man in this State who justifies border-ruffianism." We point you to every man who fully sustains the conduct and opinions of President Pierce. He upholds, as the Free Press declares, do the democratic party, THE KANSAS LEGISLATURE AND ITS LAWS. These are the express and exclusive work of the border ruffians. If you endorse all a man does, ought he not to be satisfied? When the borderers go over into Kansas and, with every insolity, establish their work, and you endorse that, what more can they ask? You may deplore and regret such expeditions in advance to your heart's content—but if you follow after and accept them as fruits, the perpetrators have gained all they desire. Is there any administration paper in Maine that does not adopt precisely this course in regard to the border-ruffian legislation in Kansas? Not one. What transparent folly, then, for these presses to declare (as does the Argus) that they denounce "this illegal interference" "with scorn and contempt!"

Now it is expected by many democrats that the whig masses are going with them to the full extent of supporting President Pierce, and into whatever abysses he may remain beyond. They say with the Argus and the Washington Union, "the more they set of us, the better they will like us, and that in the end, we may fight and conquer together, a one compact and homogeneous party." To do this, the Whigs must, of course, throw away all thoughts of separate organization, and turn their backs upon every principle they once professed. They must bargain with endorsing the ruffian legislature of Kansas, as the very alphabet of democratic progress—and they will advance as slave masters shall graciously teach. We ask again, what do the Whig masses say to this?—and we trust they have not pawned their answers into democratic keeping quite yet.—Portland Advertiser.

Concerning the Monroe doctrine, the Vermont Chronicle, edited by what ancient statesman or printer we know not—says it happens to remember that, though J. Q. Adams was secretary of state at the time, the paragraph in President Monroe's message containing the "doctrine" was sent to the government printer in Mr. Monroe's own handwriting, though the body of the message had been copied by a clerk. The Chronicle, furthermore, traces the "doctrine" to the British government, making use of Mr. Adams as its conveyancer, thus:—"The appearance of it [the paragraph] in that message was doubtless suggested through Mr. Adams by the British government as a hounter check to the movements of the Holy Alliance, which threatened an attempt to restore to Spain her possessions on this continent." There is nothing to urge against the probability of this except the well known fact that J. Q. Adams never betrayed any love for the British government. It, however, the doctrine had an English origin, it has returned to plague the inventor.

THE RAILROADS.—The Montreal, Waterville and Bangor trains came in yesterday on time, as also the York and Cumberland trains. The train from Augusta arrived about 8 o'clock last evening, bringing the mails from that place and Bath of Tuesday and Wednesday.

The train which left here on Monday morning for Boston had succeeded in getting to South Berwick last evening, and was to return to this city this morning. The train from Boston on Monday morning, was left at Salem, and the conductor took the locomotive and commenced to clear the track. We learn that he succeeded in reaching Portsmouth yesterday. The train over the Boston and Maine road is at Exeter.—Portland Adv. Thursday.

MILITARY BALL.—There is to be a military and citizens' ball, at Norombega Hall, on Tuesday evening, March 4th, under the direction of the First Regiment. The officers of the Regiment, with a number of our leading citizens to represent the civilians, compose the board of managers. It will be an occasion worthy of the place, and of the gentlemen under whose auspices it has been planned.—Journal.

The California Chronicle of a few days ago, contains a long letter from Mrs. Farnham, of Santa Cruz, in which she says that some ruined columns of a building, two thousand years old, had been found in that neighborhood.

It doesn't appear how the date was ascertained.

LEGISLATURE OF MAINE.

WEDNESDAY, February 20.

In Senate—

The consideration of the constitutional amendments was resumed.

After debate the original resolve, reported by the majority of the committee, was passed by the following vote:

Yeas—Messrs. Butler, Farley, Hersan, Hodsdon, Hayden, Jenkins, Kezar, Lowell, Morrill, O'Brien, Read, Robinson, Swazey, Thompson—14.

Nays—Messrs. Barnes, Blaisdell, French, Goodwin—4.

Mr. Shepard, at his own request, was excused from voting. Mr. Barker, his colleague, was absent.

Read and assigned—Resolve in favor of the ministerial fund in Clifton; act to establish a Police Court in the city of Bangor.

Passed to be engrossed—Resolve authorizing the Land Agent to sell the reserved lot in No. 14 E.D.

Passed to be enacted—An act to revive the charter of the European and North American Railway; an act to extend the time for location of the Penobscot, Lincoln and Kennebec Railroad; act in relation to certain bridges over the Kenduskeag river, Bangor; act to establish the Municipal Court in the city of Portland; act to increase the salary of Register of Probate for Penobscot county; act to incorporate Corinthian Royal Arch Chapter.

House. Resolve in favor of the town of Clifton was taken up, and passed to be engrossed.

Resolve changing the time for the payment of the School Fund, came up on assignment.

Mr. Levenseller, of Thomaston, in view of certain difference of opinion that has arisen, moved to amend so as to make the payments on the 10th of January instead of the 7th of February—the apportionment to be made as heretofore.

Mr. Morrow, of Searsmont, moved to lay the amendment and the bill upon the table.

Mr. Levenseller. All that is asked of towns is that as they make up the State, and accordingly will be subjected to the tax if one is levied, they will just allow the School fund to lay as uncalled for, until the first of January. It is true that we can obtain a loan of fifty thousand dollars, but will gentlemen ask that the State should come to the very extreme of the limitation.

Mr. Morrow was opposed to the resolves, as was well understood here, and he was happy to know that he was not alone in that opposition.

Mr. Pike, of Topsfield, believed that the school fund ought not to be devoted to any such purpose as was proposed. He hoped the time of its payment would not be changed, but we should be allowed "our treat in due season".

Mr. Sargent, of Sedgwick, was opposed to the resolve. He might be one of those who were more frightened than hurt, but he could not look upon the diversion of this fund from its proper channel, It was like a clerk taking money from his employer's till. The money was not ours to appropriate in this way. Besides, such was the exalted position occupied by the Legislature, according to the other side of the House, that he feared a bad precedent would be set, which would in future be unscrupulously followed.

Mr. Trott, of Lubec. How is the school fund to be got next June, if the time of payment is not deferred. We have not got the money, and shall not have it in June. The first possible opportunity we shall have for its restoration will be the first of January, 1857.

Mr. Trott, of Woolwich, saw no reason for altering his opinion, as expressed the other day. He foresaw heavy losses to the school fund if this resolve was allowed a passage, or at least a serious deprivation of gains, in the way of dividends.

Mr. Pearson, of Machias, denied that any part of this school fund has been expended for any other purpose, or turned away from its proper appropriation to schools. If payment is delayed this year, it is by necessity, to be taken away altogether. It is enough for him that this resolve opens a door for the future diversion of this fund, and he, should therefore oppose it.

After propounding certain interrogatories, to which Mr. Levenseller responded, Mr. Morse, of Bath, said he thought it would be better to delay action until the Committee on Finance bring in some plan for supplying the deficiency in the treasury. He suggested that one half of the State tax be made payable at an earlier period, and the payment of one half the school fund be delayed.

Mr. Barker, of Exeter, regretted that the party to him had been sounded in this discussion. The gentleman from Topsfield had designated the depository as the "salt of the earth." This was true of the old fashioned democracy to which he himself had originally belonged. But this new democracy had lost its savor, and the scriptures informs us what that kind of salt is good for. Mr. B. as a member of the Committee on Finance, had agreed in reporting this resolve, and believed it should pass.

The amendment was then adopted.

Mr. Morrow stated his reasons for opposition to the resolve. He explained that the school fund apportioned to the several towns, although in many cases not drawn from the State Treasury, is subject to the draft of the towns at pleasure, and they therefore treat the money the same as if it had already been drawn.

After further debate the yeas and nays were ordered, and the resolve passed—yeas 19, nays 5.

A SAD CASE.—An old man, named Barton, 77 years of age, residing in Sidney, who has for many years past been insane, exposed himself to the severe weather some six weeks ago, and had both feet badly frozen. Such were his habits that those having him in charge did not discover the injury for several days. Dr. Boutelle was called on Wednesday of last week, and found both feet in a bad state of gangrene. To save the life of the old man, he amputated one foot at the instep, and three toes from the other foot. Ether was sparingly used, so that the patient seemed to suffer little pain. At the last examination he was apparently doing well, and notwithstanding his age and previous health, would probably recover.—Winterville Mail.

REPORTED DEATH BY FREEZING.—We hear it stated that Mr. R. Jones, formerly of this county, and all his family were recently frozen to death while attempting to cross a prairie in Iowa. He was moving to Iowa, and attempting to cross a prairie some ten miles in width, late in the evening of a cold day, when his family were about to freeze, he stopped, covered them up with all the clothing he had, and hastened away to secure assistance. On his return he found the entire family frozen to death. Mr. Jones was then taken to a neighboring house, and was so benumbed with cold that he soon sunk in death. We hope that the report may not be true.—Thomaston Journal.

We understand that Sheriff Nichols has appointed Wm. Gaptill, of Cherryfield, and J. W. Perno, of this place, as deputies, for their respective districts. We do not learn that any further appointments have been made.

Since writing the above, we learn that Abijah Crane, of this place, has received the appointment of jailor, and on Saturday last made formal demand for possession of the Jail &c., but the present jailor did not accede to the request.—Machias Union.

POCKET PICKED.—On Wednesday evening a Mr. Roach, of Nicatou, slipped down on Central Bridge and was relieved of sixty dollars by one James Lane, a hostler of a neighboring stable, about half of which was found hid in a stall. Lane has been committed to jail. He said his took the money for safe keeping. He could not, it seems, trust himself, and was obliged to hide it. Walker smoked him out.—Journal.

Holloway's Pills have again triumphed over every other Medicine. Interesting Case. Emily Walters, aged 17, of Walnut street, Cincinnati, suffered much and often from sick headaches, tottering of the limbs, numbness of the whole body, and other symptoms which very much alarmed her fond parents. The actual cause and nature of the complaint puzzled every one, as here such a variety of troubles, and consequently there were a variety of opinions on the subject. These months ago the mother boldly went to work with Holloway's Pills, which very quickly performed their part, for in six weeks the young lady was in possession of the most robust health—absolutely advice and medicine had failed. They are an excellent remedy for young ladies entering into womanhood.

Ill Heads.

Much time is saved to the well supplied with the above, in all the best style.

BOSTON, No. 2 Oliver Street, Nov. 22, 1845.

DR. HAYDEN: Dear Sir—On the 8th of this month I was taken dangerously ill, with severe pains throughout my whole body, with much fever, and great distress in my head. By advice, I concluded to give your pills a trial. I took three, which afforded me almost instant relief, and I for one can truly say that, without any exception, they are the best medicine I have ever used. I also recommended them to a sick friend, who informs me he has received great benefit from their use, and extols them above all others.

I remain, sir, your obedient servant,

J. B. TRENHOLM.

COUGHS AND COLDS. At this season of the year, when coughs and colds are so prevalent, a reliable remedy in such cases is important to all the afflicted. Of Dr. Stone's medicine, which will be found advertised in our paper, the Montreal Pilot says:

The astonishing demand for G. W. Stone's Cough Medicine, and its complete success in curing affections of the throat and lungs, fully prove that we were justified in recommending it to our readers on its introduction to the public; and we can safely assert that no remedy has ever become so deservedly popular in the same space of time.—[Lowell News.

☞ The old and true maxim that an ounce of preventative is worth a pound of cure, will be fully realized by those who make use of G. W. Stone's Liquid Cathartic and Family Physic, as it cleanses the blood from all impurity, frees the stomach from bile, produces a healthy action of the liver, and perfectly regulates the bowels, it also removes all local pains, prevents and cures dysentery, diarrhœa, cholera morbus, or cholera, strengthens the whole system, and is perfectly agreeable to the taste.

LATER FROM EUROPE.

ARRIVAL OF THE

Steamship Ætna,

(OF THE HAVRE LINE)

AT HALIFAX.

THREE DAYS LATER NEWS!

HALIFAX, Feb. 22.

The steamship Ætna, of the Havre and New York line, from Havre the 5th inst., arrived here to-day.

The Presse publishes the names of the negotiators about to assemble at the Paris Conference. They are: for France, Count Walewski and Bourqueney; for England, Lords Clarendon and Cowley; for Austria, Count Buol and Heubers; for Turkey, Ali Pacha and Mehemid Djemil Bey; for Sardinia, Dandolo; for Russia, Counts Orloff and Brunow.

It is still current at Paris that Prussia will not be permitted to participate in the deliberations of the Conference.

Prince Gortschakoff, when signing the protocol at Vienna, formally accepting the Austrian propositions, demanded that Prussia should be invited to take part in the Conference.—Count Buol supported that demand, but M. Bourqueney and Lord Seymour had asked to refer it to their governments.

The acceptation by Russia of peace propositions had caused the greatest astonishment in Turkey.

Of the 19th of January it had not reached the Allied generals, owing to some derangement of the sub-marine cable in the Black Sea.

Some disturbances had been created by the Bashi Bazouks at Shumla.

It was reported that a serious military conspiracy existed at Madrid, with ramifications through the north of Spain. Particulars not given.

Not a particle of any kind of English news. Cannot get anything definite as to the Havre markets, but breadstuffs are declining.

Confidence in a favorable result of the Peace Conference is daily increasing.

The Canada's Mails—Central American Difficulties.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 22.

The Canada's mails arrived this morning.

The government despatches from England contain nothing of a definite character, neither is there any prospect of an early settlement of the matters in dispute between that government and the United States.

The chief difficulty is absorbed in the Central American question.

There is no information whatever, to verify the rumor of the London Advertiser, that angry words had passed between Mr. Buchanan and Lord Clarendon.

Mr. Crampton has received fresh instructions not to absent himself from Washington, as heretofore contemplated, but to attend to the unfinished business of the State Department.

National Republican Convention.

PITTSBURG, Feb. 22.

The National Republican Convention temporarily organized at 11 o'clock. A very large number being present.

Mr. Brainerd of Vermont, called the assembly to order, and moved the election of John A. King of New York, as temporary chairman. Dr. Stone of Mass., and Wm. Penn Clark of Iowa, as temporary Secretaries.

Mr. King made a brief address, thanking the Convention for the honor conferred upon him.

A committee of permanent organization, consisting of one from each State, was then appointed.

Judge Spaulding announced that he had received a despatch, stating that a large number of delegates from New York, Pennsylvania and New Jersey were in the cars, and would arrive at 2 o'clock.

A motion was made to adjourn to that time. Pending this, it was moved that the committee on permanent organization meet in an adjoining room to arrange preliminaries.

During the absence of the committee several gentlemen were called upon to address the meeting.

Mr. Greeley of New York said he had been in Washington for several weeks. Friends there counselled extreme caution in our movements. Not being himself a cautious man he thought we were bound to act in such a manner as to show the South that although Republicans are the earnest opponents of slavery, they are not governed by feelings hostile to the South. It was for the real interest of Missouri that Kansas should be a free State, and he believed that the honest majority of the people of Missouri favor freedom. The Secretary of War is no friend to our cause, neither is the Commander of the Federal forces a friend.—Therefore, let us be cautioned to keep within bounds. Mr. Greeley believed the American party was against them, and declared that the issue and only issue was that every territory should be free. He was succeeded by Mr Giddings.

Mr. Giddings of Ohio congratulated the Convention on having the son of his old friend Rufus King in the chair. Washington was the last place to look for redress.

Mr. Giddings introduced Rev. Mr. Lovejoy of Illinois, who made some exciting remarks. He said the places of those patriots who were about to be shot down in Kansas would be supplied by other freemen. He was willing, either as a captain or a private, to act. He would be there sweltering in blood sooner than see a set of drunken ruffians take the government out of the hands of the people of Kansas.

Mr. Gibson of Ohio followed, denouncing the Know-Nothings, etc. He heard that they would nominate Seward Law! But we act independently; and organize a truly American Republican party.

Mr Carding of Illinois followed.

The committee on permanent organization reported for President, Francis P. Blair of Maryland. The announcement of his name was received with great applause, and the nomination unanimously accepted.

Mr. Blair, in accepting the office, said that it was the first speech he had ever been called on to make. He felt highly complimented by the honor done him. He said the South misunderstood the object of the Republican party, believing it to be solely the abolition of slavery, but when they understood that it is to prevent nullification at the North a different feeling would prevail.

The following Vice Presidents were announced:

Horatio G. Ruse of N. H.

[The above despatch was not finished.]

American National Convention.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 22.

The convention this morning temporarily organized, Isaac Hazlehurst of Philadelphia in the chair.

Much time will be occupied examining credentials, the main difficulty being as to the admission of the rival delegates from Pennsylvania.

The Committee on the permanent organization, reported, for President, Ephraim Marsh of New Jersey, with 32 Vice Presidents, including T. W. Emery of R. I., Thos. Spooner of Ill., Thomas H. Clay, Ky., C. W. Bell, Mo., Erastus Brooks, N. Y.

The report of the committee on organization was accepted, but no vote was taken on its adoption in consequence of the committee on credentials not being ready to report.

After much time spent in debate the Convention adjourned.

EVENING SESSION. The Convention re-assembled in Sansom-street Hall, and the permanent officers reported at the afternoon session were elected and took their seats.

The committee on credentials, made a majority and minority report; the former favoring the admission of Mr. Ellis's delegation, and the latter, signed by the Southern members of the committee, refusing to recognize delegates from any council repudiating the 12th section of the Platform of 1856. Debate ensued.

Celebration of Washington's Birthday.

NEW YORK, Feb. 22.

The anniversary of Gen. Washington's birth day was extensively observed in this city to-day.

The order of United Americans had a grand civic and military procession, with review in the Park, and an oration by Daniel Ullmann at the Academy of Music.

The Young Men's Democratic Union Club held a mass meeting at Tammany Hall, which was addressed by J. L. Orr of South Carolina, Theo. G. Davidson of Louisiana, and General Quitman of Mississippi.

The American Protestant Association paraded in a grand procession, composed of the various lodges. A grand banquet was given in the evening at the Astor House, at which Jas. T. Brady and other eloquent speakers responded to the toasts.

The Washington Association celebrated the occasion by a grand ball at the city assembly rooms.

In Brooklyn, an American organization celebrated the day at the Lyceum; Rev. W. H. Milburn delivered an address.

Libel Suit vs. the Washington Union.

From Havana.

NEW ORLEANS, 21st.

The Black Warrior arrived to-day, from Havana, with dates to 19th. News unimportant. Weather more favorable, but sugar crop undoubtedly short. Market active, with good speculative demand. Sales 14,000 to 15,000 boxes are contracted for at $22 to $23,50.

From Hayti.

The Post has a letter from Port au Prince of Jan 27th, which says: "Political matters stand about the same as on the 16th. No one seems to know what to expect. The Emperor is yet on the lines, with the remains of his army, say 5000 men. We know but little of them, but fear he will attempt to renew the expedition. Should he do so, we do not know what would come of it. He is probably the only man in the empire who is in favor of this expedition, and if he can succeed in it against all this deadweight of opposition, he must be a remarkable man. It is still very sickly here. Never so bad as worse. This last spell has continued over fifteen months, and it seems as if it would never cease. Vessels are losing nearly half their crews. Hardly a man escapes the fever, who has not already had it."

Markets.

NEW YORK, Feb. 22.

Flour market unchanged. But little done. $5,87 for inferior to common State and Michigan extra State 7,00 @ 7,37. Low grades extra western 7,37 @ 8,00; Canada 9,75 @ 9,50; extra Genesee 9,50 @ 10,50. Southern flour declined 12 @ 25 cents, with limited sales. Corn meal unchanged.

Wheat heavy and unsettled, and prices still tending downward. Red Tens. 1,82; white Canadian 1,75.

Corn dull. Prices nominally the same. New and old mixed yellow and white Jersey 76 @ 77.

Oats lower. Jersey 36 @ 40; State 42 @ 45; and 46 @ 49 for Western.

Pork dull and lower; sales 15,75 @ 16,87 for mess; prime 13,25 @ 13,50.

Beef quiet and heavy. Prices without important change. Prime mess beef unchanged.

Molasses quiet. New Orleans 42 @ 43.

Coffee firm. Rio 11¼ @ 12; St. Domingo 10¾.

Sugars steady, with a moderate business.

BOSTON, 21st.

The Steamship Pacific, Capt Lang, of the steamship Canada, thinks the statement of the Pacific putting into the river Shannon previous to Jan 23, is wholly unfounded. She was last seen off Waterford, from the ship Louisiana, since arrived at Liverpool, Capt. L. reports very severe weather during the whole passage, with strong westerly gales; hence he infers if the Pacific had been disabled by ice, she would have had no difficulty in putting back under canvas.

WASHINGTON, 20th.

The House Committee on Elections has before it three contested elections from Illinois, and one each from Louisiana, Maryland, Iowa, Kansas and New Mexico. Those of Nebraska and Maine will soon be submitted.

Mr Clapp, the Clerk of the House, has been seriously ill since yesterday, but hopes are now had of his early recovery.

The N. Y. Herald alludes to the rescinding of the 12th Section, 109 to 97, by the American National Council at Philadelphia, and says:

"The Council adjourned in bad temper, amid great confusion and excitement. The Southern delegates and their allies subsequently had a private caucus, and resolved to boil if the free soilers persisted in rescinding the 12th section. That the latter will adhere to their determination, there is scarcely a doubt, and we shall then witness the complete and irremediable dissolution of the National Council."

The National American Convention is now in session at Philadelphia, but had merely organized yesterday. [illegible] The dissensions in regard to the 12th Section had commenced. See the despatch.

FOOT-STOVE, LANTERN
—AND—
NURSE-LAMP.

ALBERT NOYES has purchased the exclusive right of manufacturing and vending the above valuable invention, and would respectfully call the attention of the public to it.

As a FOOT STOVE, it answers an excellent purpose, as it can be sufficiently heated in less than one minute to warm and dry the feet in the coldest weather, and will be found to be an indispensable article in the sleigh. Has heated by an oil alcohol or fluid lamp the flame of which is protected from every external object.

As a LANTERN it answers all the usual purposes and is likely to cover or get broken and can be used in a place dark or with equal advantage

As a NURSE LAMP and for cases of sickness it is of great use for making drinks of medicine &c. &c. &c. It will be found to be an indispensable article in the sick room.

Has a lamp to warm and dry the feet in the coldest weather, and will be found to be an indispensable article in the sick room.

Has heated by an oil alcohol or fluid lamp the flame of which is protected from every external object.

As a LANTERN it answers all the usual purposes and is likely to cover or get broken and can be used in a place dark or with equal advantage

As a NURSE LAMP and for cases of sickness it is of great use for making drinks of medicine &c. &c. &c. It will be found to be an indispensable article in the sick room.

That the various purposes to which this neat apparatus can be put may be readily conjectured by every one No further description is required, as no one can fail to understand its general utility. To say any thing more respecting its adaptability to a hundred purposes would just be telling what our readers can see at once for themselves

KENNEDY'S

The Greatest of the Age!

MR. KENNEDY, of Roxbury, has discovered in one of our common pastime weeds a remedy that cures EVERY KIND OF HUMOR, from the worst Scrofula down to a common pimple. He has tried it in over eleven hundred cases, and never failed except in two He has now in his possession over two hundred certificates of its value, all within twenty miles of Boston.

Two bottles are warranted to cure a running sore mouth.

One to three bottles will cure the worst kind of pimples on the face

Two to three bottles will cure the system of tetter.

Two bottles are warranted to cure the worst canker in the mouth and stomach

Three to five bottles are warranted to cure the worst cases of erysipelas

One to two bottles are warranted to cure all humors in the eyes

Two bottles are warranted to cure running in the ears and blotches in the hair

Four to six bottles are warranted to cure corrupt and running ulcers.

One bottle will cure scaly eruptions of the skin

Two to three bottles are warranted to cure the worst case of ring worm

Two to three bottles are warranted to cure the most desperate cases of rheumatism.

Three to six bottles are warranted to cure saltrheum

Five to eight bottles will cure the very worst case of Scrofula.

A benefit is always experienced from the first bottle, and a perfect cure warranted when the above quantity is taken.

Nothing looks so unbecoming to those who have in vain tried all the wonderful medicines of the day as, that a common weed, growing upon the pastures and along old stone walls, should cure every humor in the system yet it is now a fixed fact. If you have a humor it has to start. There are no if ands or buts about it as long as some cases but not yours. He has peddled over a thousand bottles of it in the vicinity of Boston, and knows the effects of it in every case It has already done some of the greatest cures ever done in Massachusetts. He gave it to children a year old, to old people of sixty, and has seen puny looking children, whose flesh was soft and flabby, restored to a perfect state of health by one bottle.

To those who are subject to sick headache, one bottle will always cure it. It gives great relief in catarrh and dizziness Some who have taken it have been costive for years and have been regulated by it Where the body is sound it works quite easy, but where there is any derangement of the functions of nature it will cause very singular feelings but you must not be alarmed—they always disappear in from four days to a week — There is never a bad result from it—on the contrary, when that feeling is gone, you will feel yourself like a new person I heard some of the most extraordinary encomiums of it that ever man listened to.

No change of diet ever necessary. Eat the best you can get and enough of it

The Great European Cough Remedy.

Important to the Consumptive and the Public generally! The celebrated

Universal Cough Mixture

IS a safe and effectual Remedy for Coughs of every description, whether of children or adults, of recent or long standing

PREPARED ONLY BY

REV WALTER CLARKE,

Sole Proprietor, Cornishville, Maine.

Within the last twelve months thousands of bottles of the Universal Cough Mixture have been sold in the State of Maine alone, and everywhere its extraordinary power in relieving and curing diseases of the Chest and Lungs is gratefully acknowledged and especially in cases of obstinate and long standing Coughs, it speedily allays the unpleasant sensation in the throat which excites coughing, it promotes free and easy expectoration, and by removing the exciting cause of the cough, it frequently enables the sufferers to enjoy natural and refreshing sleep, who for weeks had been deprived of that blessing.

Sold in full bottles, 25 cents each, large bottles each containing the quantity of four small ones 75 cents each.

Extract of a letter from Daniel Adams, Esq , of Brookfield, Maine

FEBRUARY 17th 1853

To Rev Walter Clark, Dear Sir—The bottle of Cough Mixture which I bought of you at Thomaston has been the best effected in my whole life and has entirely removed it

From Rev Jesse Hoyt Lewiston Falls

Rev CLARKE—Lady bottle of the Universal Cough Mixture which you left with me in said village has done wonders in relieving and curing the cough of my wife, and children As far as heard from all have been perfectly satisfied with the medicine Our man who had cough of long standing, attended with soreness of the chest and shortness of breath so that he was fast going into decline, purchased one large bottle, and before he had taken the third of it, was perfectly restored to health and strength Many of my friends have been benefited by it and I believe it to be the best medicine in the world, and I cannot be recommended too highly

JESSE HAYES.

From Mr Fletcher Chuck, agent for North Bux mont Maine

I number of the most extraordinary cures effected by the Universal Cough Mixture in several who had no relief in a year s standing. I have been acquainted with it for months without benefit have been speedily cured by the Universal Cough Mixture

From Mrs Hubbard, Thorndike, Me

January 1 1854

Rev Walter Clark, Dear Sir—This certifies that I have used one bottle of your Universal Cough Mixture for a disagreeable and soreness in the lungs I did previously several kinds of medicine and had been under the care of several physicians without obtaining the least relief Happily your Universal Cough Mixture was recommended to me by a friend and I began to take according to directions on the label, by which in a few days I was entirely cured.

TESTIMONY FROM MAINE

Capt Daniel Abbott Brooklin Maine, July 16, 1853 says "I was taken sick one year ago last April upon my passage from Havana to Charleston S C At the latter place I took medicine and procured a physician but for ten days could obtain no relief, no sleep or appetite At last I saw among a newspaper having your advertisement of Hoofland's German Bitters Sent it sent for some immediately This was about 10 o clock, at 11 o clock I took the first dose, and another at 6 o clock The effect was so rapid on me that I had a good appetite for supper, and rested well that night, and the next day found me a well man—I have not been without your medicine since, having been sailing between Baltimore, Charleston, and the West India Islands ever since I have now given up going to sea and reside in this place where you should have an agency, as you could sell large quantities of it.

Jos R Hall & Co, Presque Isle, Aroostook Co Maine, April 24, 1854, say "We herewith send you a certificate of a cure performed by the use of only one bottle of the German Bitters We think Mr Clark to be a man of veracity, and have no doubt of the truth of his story "

Messrs Jos B Hall & Co—Gentlemen—In answer to your inquiries I will state that my daughter, aged about 16 years, has been complaining of a pain in her side for six or seven years, and about the first of January last was taken down and confined to her bed The pain in her side was very severe, besides being troubled with pains between her shoulders and in her breast From reading a number of cures performed by Hoofland's German Bitters, I was induced to try them in her case and sent to your store and purchased one bottle She had taken it but a few days when she began to improve, and now, after taking only one bottle, she is enjoying better health than she has for years.—She feels no pain in her side or in any part of her body, and attributes her cure entirely to the German Bitters. WILLIAM CLARK.

Salmon Brook, Aroostook Co Me

You should bear in mind that these Bitters are entirely vegetable, thereby possessing advantages over most of the preparations recommended for similar diseases.

INHALATION
—FOR THE—
Cure of Consumption

Dr. Ira Warren's New Remedy.

THE most astonishing cures of Lung Disease have been effected by the use of Dr Warren's

Inhaling Balm.

A vaporized preparation, for inhaling into the lungs where the local disease is. This BALM is presented with the full confidence that it is the best medicinal agent ever offered for the cure of Consumption and Asthma. Numerous certificates of those who have been cured or materially benefited by this medicine may be seen in the hands of agents It has accomplished the most wonderful cures in the city of Boston and vicinity, and is producing an impression on the minds of the lungs never before witnessed by the medical profession

It has restored to health those upon whom medicine had made rapid and fearful inroads, and where other remedies had proved unavailing Inhaling reporized and inhaled, it enters every cell and every particle of the lungs It is delightful and agreeable while its salutary effects are truly wonderful The Vapor Inhaler is made of wood and glass and is admirably adapted to the purpose

We invite the closest inspection of the profession physicians, confident that our preparation will meet with universal approval.

Pulmonic Cherry Cordial.

Supports the stomach and improves the appetite, fulfils the end of a philosophical treatment for consumption better than any other article It is admirably calculated to relieve that constriction of the chest which is so often met with in diseases and is highly efficacious in relieving coughs of long standing It is a safe remedy in any stage of Phthisis Used in connection with the Inhaling Balm the compound of Cod Liver Oil, as prepared from Dr Warren's recipes, it will be found to have curative powers not superior to any other article before the public

Price $5 a package Any person inclosing $5 to BURR & PERRY, No 1 Cornhill Boston, will receive a package containing a bottle of Pulmonic Cherry Cordial the Inhaling Balm and the Medicated Vapor Inhaler in a neat box by Express free to any part of the United States or British Provinces

Dr. Ira Warren's
Compound of Pure Cod Liver Oil
Lime & Sugar of Milk.

The great value of Cod Liver Oil as a remedy in Consumption is now generally admitted but its correct assimilation with the fluids of the system has always been a difficulty, rendering the use of the remedy uncertain, according to Dr Hunter's opinion of a minute particle of oil surrounded by a particle of lime has been procured in combination and sugar of milk, throughout both the vegetable and the animal world

The Sugar of Milk, many of the most eminent of the faculty of Great Britain and France, pronounce it very similar in its properties in weak lungs, and highly nutritive for invalids, and especially adapted in Consumption and Chronic Diseases of the throat and lungs, and in many cases of Dyspepsia, it is preferred to any other article of food, from its peculiarly delicate nature, and from the fact that it is the only article of food that will keep the stomach sweet, and supplying a sacharine principle to the lungs much like the natural secretion.

In conducting a large practice in Consumption and Lung diseases Dr Warren has had the fullest opportunity of testing the value of Cod Liver Oil in Consumption will be at once appreciated by the medical profession and the public generally, and is offered to the people generally
